Interactive storytelling and creative art activities for children ages birth to 5

On Saturday, April 17, 2010, Child Care Services Association's T.E.A.C.H.® Early Childhood Corps members will lead Books Alive!, a fun-filled afternoon for children ages birth to 5. The event will be held at the Stanford Warren Library at 1201 Fayetteville Street in Durham from 2:00 to 4:00 pm.

Special activities include:
Interactive story-telling at 2:30, 3:00 and 3:30 pm
Arts & crafts
Music & movement

There will also be a story area where children can read their favorite books and information about early literacy and diversity for parents.

Activities will be led by Child Care Services Association's T.E.A.C.H.® Early Childhood Corps, AmeriCorps members dedicated to improving early care and education, and promoting literacy and nutrition in the Triangle.

Child Care Services Association's T.E.A.C.H.® Early Childhood Corps are AmeriCorps members dedicated to improving early care and education, and promoting literacy and nutrition in the Triangle. Founded in 1974, Child Care Services Association (CCSA) is a nationally recognized nonprofit working to ensure affordable, accessible, high-quality child care for all children and families. The organization accomplishes its mission through direct services, research and advocacy. CCSA provides a nutrition program for children in child care settings, free referral services to families seeking child care and quality improvement assistance to child care businesses. CCSA's T.E.A.C.H. Early Childhood® Project provides educational scholarships to early childhood educators across North Carolina and is licensed in 20 other states. The Child Care WAGE$® Project provides salary supplements to child care providers throughout the state and is licensed in three other states.
